

AIRSOFT CQB IS LOOKING FOR AIRSOFT BLOGGERS

WHAT WE WANT:

We are looking for airsoft experts to write weekly blog entries on airsoftcqb.com. We want you to review products, give tactical advice, write up tutorials, or write about anything else related to the world of airsoft.

WHAT YOU GET:

The airsoft experts we choose to write weekly blog articles for us will be able to play at our field for free. They will also get national exposure on the AirsoftCQB website and the chance to show the airsoft community what they know.

HOW TO APPLY:

To apply, send two (2) writing samples (one airsoft related, one about anything) to sdm@groupvvti.com with the subject line reading "Airsoft blogging." We will review all of the submissions and contact those who we believe are the most knowledgeable and would best represent Airsoft CQB.

All blog posts will have to meet the approval of Airsoft CQB staff before being posted. You will receive one (1) voucher for free field access for each blog entry that is approved and posted. Blog entries are subject to editing requests by Airsoft CQB staff.
